

I just want to say that I do not agree with the Consumer's Bankers Association trying to weaken the telephone privacy act. I believe that if we wanted their solicitations, the residents/or businesses would not have signed up for the no call list. Thank you for your time on this matter.